Confirmation

- I confirm that I am requesting copies of my radiology records for my personal use only.
- Records will only be distributed once finalised. Depending on the type of imaging, this can take several weeks.
- Where I have requested information to be sent via Secure File Transfer, I understand that the information will be sent using WA Health's Secure File Transfer System (MyFT) and that I will be required to set up an account using the email address supplied and configure multi-factor authentication in order to download the files.
- Where I have requested records to be provided on USB or printed, I understand that I must collect in person and that photo ID (eg. driver's licence, passport, photo card) will be required. If I would like someone else to collect on my behalf, then an "Authority to Release Radiology Records (RPRAD05)" form will also be required.
- Images will be provided in DICOM format, which will need to be viewed either using the included DICOM viewer or using third-party software. The included viewer cannot be used on mobile devices.
